

PRIVACY STATEMENT

Youthsafe collects personal and sensitive information only if it is necessary for its work. In such cases the customer will be told why we are collecting the information.

Such information will be securely stored in electronic form and will only be shared with a third party or used for a secondary purpose if the customer agrees. Customers may also access their own information in order to seek its correction or removal from Youthsafe's system.